Every endeavour should be made to reduce the pendency particularly the number of cases pending over six months.

III Appellate work.—Sessions Judges (4) (including the Additional Sessions Judge Bangalore).

Taking both Regular and Miscellaneous appeals together, there were 239 (against 179) appeals for disposal. Of these, 151 were disposed of leaving a pendency of 88 appeals (against 109) (52, 15 and 21 in the Courts of Session of Bangalore, Mysore and Shimoga respectively).

(b) Revision Petitions.

Inclusive of 45 Revision Petitions pending at the close of the previous quarter, there were 72 (against 61) Petitions for disposal. Of these, 36 (against 16) were disposed of and 36 were left pending.

District Magistrates (8).

There were 70 Regular appeals and 52 Revision Petitions for disposal and out of them, 39 Regular appeals (including 6 transferred) and 21 Revision Petitions were disposed of leaving pending 31 appeals and 31 Revision Petitions.

Special Magistrates.

In addition to the 1 Regular appeal pending at the close of the previous quarter, there were 23 appeals for disposal.

Of these, 13 were disposed of (excluding 3 transferred) and 7 were left pending.

During the quarter under Review, special instructions were also issued to the District Judges and the District Magistrates with a view to check abnormal pendency of cases, sometimes even of a simple nature. Memorandum is being called for from each of the Subordinate Civil and Criminal Courts along with monthly, and quarterly statements of all old cases and appeals pending and the same is closely scrutinized and orders passed thereon. The District Judges and the District Magistrates have also been directed to watch the Progress made towards reducing the pendency of old cases in the Courts Subordinate to them and to send a report in the matter to the High Court every quarter together with recommendations as to the action to be taken in the case of the presiding officers of the Courts whose work is found to be unsatisfactory.
